Funding Resources for Children with Special Health Needs

December 2015

The resources on this page are not comprehensive nor does inclusion imply endorsement by the Oregon F2F HIC or the Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU). These resources are intended to be a starting point for further research. The Oregon F2F HIC is a family-led effort, funded by a grant from the Health Resources and Services Administration/Maternal and Child Health Bureau. The F2F is closely affiliated with the Oregon Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Needs (OCCYSHN), located at the Institute on Development & Disability (IDD) at OHSU.
